4. Matters arising

a. The Chairman started the meeting with the sad news of the recent passing of Cllr Rita Scurr. Rita was a very valued member of the Parish Council her commitment and contribution was beneficial to both the Council and residents alike and she will be sadly missed. A vacancy has now arisen for a Councillor to join the Council. The Clerk has advertised this vacancy through the necessary protocol with Electoral Services and anyone wishing to apply can contact the clerk for the relevant information. All details can be found on the Parish Council website.

b. The next Parish Council meeting will be on (tba).

c. ERYCC have announced a new small grant fund to support eligible communities in the East Riding to celebrate this year's Tour de Yorkshire commencing 30th April 2020. The Clerk has applied for some of the available funding towards the purchase of street signage.

Proposed: - Cllr Robson

Seconded: - Cllr Adamson

All Agreed

5. Correspondence

a. A letter was sent to Chris Matthews (Portfolio Holder) ERYCC in relation to the levels of water within the local rivers/drains. A response has been received from Chris Matthews requested a site visit for him to gain a better understanding of the situation. This has been passed on to Cllr Sowersby who will arrange a site visit and will invite Phil Madeley (Drainage Board Committee) to attend.

Email received from Jon Church (Engineer to Beverley & North Holderness IDB) who are currently considering en-maining and maintaining an additional section of Braemar Drain to the South of Main Street, Beeford and asked if the Parish Council would consider a contribution towards such work. The Clerk is awaiting further details/clarification and this matter will be placed on the April Agenda.

b. Town & Parish Council Charter Consultation report has now been published in relation to communication between East Riding and town and Parish Council. The clerk will complete a survey.

c. Letter received from Terry Weaver ERYVV Highways/Planning who has confirmed that formal investigations are underway in relation to access rights at Mill View Crescent.

d. Stakeholder Newsletter for February 2020 providing information for the development of new strategy for managing tidal flood risk on and around the Humber. Anyone wishing to receive further copies of this Newsletter email Hstrategy@environment-agency.gov.uk
